Friends of the Gold Coast Library Annual Meeting

Followed by the Program: "Mid-Century First Ladies"

Monday, June 10th, Supper and Meeting @ 6pm, Program @ 7pm

All are welcome to join the Friends of the Library at their annual get-together. You do not need to be a Friends member to attend. It’s a wonderful opportunity to get to know the Friends Board and share ideas while enjoying a light supper and dessert. Join us for any or all of the evening’s activities.

Following the meeting, Marilyn Carminio will present her engaging program highlighting the personal side of life in the White House. Marilyn will show how each First Lady, from Eleanor Roosevelt to Jackie Kennedy, carved out a unique path to make the “most demanding volunteer job in America” her own.

The supper and program are free and open to all. When registering, please indicate if you will attend the supper.
Registration begins Thursday, April 25th at 9:30AM for Gold Coast Public Library residents and one week later for non-residents. All registrants are contacted by phone or email just prior to each program to confirm their attendance. If attendance is not confirmed, wait-listed patrons are contacted so that as many people as possible are accommodated.
